

LOGISTICS NOTE FOR THE UN GLOBAL COMPACT ANNUAL MEETING, COPENHAGEN, 2011

1. ARRIVING IN COPENHAGEN FROM KASTRUP AIRPORT (CPH)

Train: There are trains from the airport to Copenhagen Central Station (København H) every 10 minutes departing from platform 2. Tickets can be purchased at the DSB ticket office above the railway station in Terminal 3. You can use the free bus which runs between Terminal 1 and Terminal 3, where the station is located. The trip from the airport to the central station takes approx. 10 minutes and costs 36 DKK (approx. 5 Euros).

Metro: The Copenhagen Metro runs to and from Copenhagen Airport at Kastrup. The Metro station is located in Terminal 3, close to the airline check-in counters (SAS, Lufthansa, Sterling, KLM, Air France, British Airways, MyTravel, etc.) and the arrivals hall. The Metro operates at 4-6 minute intervals during the day and evening hours and at 15-20 minute intervals at night every day of the week. A single ride ticket from Copenhagen Airport to the city centre costs DKK 34,5 (approx. 4,5 Euros). Be aware that ticket machines do not accept bills, only coins and credit cards.

Taxi: There are taxi ranks outside the arrival areas (Terminal 1 and Terminal 3). Fares include a service charge, so tips are not expected. Most taxis accept major credit cards. Should you wish to pay with a credit card, let the driver know before beginning the trip. On request, taxi drivers will provide you with a computerized receipt for the fare. For those who wish to take a taxi directly from the airport to a hotel in the city center, the distance is about 13 KM and the ride will cost about 210 DKK (approx. 28 Euros).

2. MOVING AROUND IN COPENHAGEN

To go around the city there are several options:

Taxis: Taxis are plentiful in Copenhagen. All taxis are licensed by the authorities and are equipped with meters. Taxis can be flagged down anywhere in the city. If the yellow "Taxa" light on the roof of the car or in the front window is on, the taxi is available for hire. The meter begins at 24 DKK (approx. 3,2 Euros) when hailed on the street and 37 DKK when you book over the phone. Plus roughly:

- 13,30 DKK (approx. 1,8 Euros) per km/half mile on weekdays between 07:00 - 16:00.
- 14,20 DKK (approx. 1,9 Euros) between 16:00 - 07:00 and all Saturday and Sunday.
- 16,80 DKK (approx. 2,25 Euros) Friday - Saturday between 23:00 - 07:00 and all national holidays.

Metro: The Copenhagen Metro has two lines - M1 and M2 - which run from suburban Vanløse to Vestamager and Copenhagen Airport. You can easily move right into the heart of Copenhagen and get off at Nørreport and Kongens Nytorv. The metro stops at attractions such as the Botanical Garden, Rosenborg, Støget, Nyhavn and The Royal Theatre. You can purchase Metro tickets from the ticket machines located in all Metro stations. A single-ride two-zone ticket costs 24 DKK (Approx. 3,2 Euros) while a two-zone multi-ride ticket with ten rides costs 140 DKK (Approx. 19 Euros).

Bus: The density of bus stops is high, which means you are never many feet away from a bus route. The HT-buses run frequently in the central part of Copenhagen. The S-buses run direct routes between the various railway stations and other major travel hubs.
